大問3B Drama club performance

3通のメールを読み、後の設問に答えなさい。

From: Emma Suzuki
To: Mia Johnson
Date: September 25
Subject: Drama club performance

Hi Mia,
I hope you're doing well! I wanted to remind you about my drama club performance next week. I'm so excited! The drama club practiced a lot, and now the play is finally ready. We practiced for two hours every day at school, and I practiced at home every day for an hour, too. I practiced with my dad. I'm still a little nervous, but it will be fine. The performance will be on Friday at 5 p.m. at the local theater. Can you still come? I want you to see the performance! My mom and brother are coming, too, so you can sit together. The drama club will sell snacks and drinks before the play, so my family will arrive at 4:30 p.m. and buy some snacks. I think it will be a lot of fun!
Your friend,
Emma

From: Mia Johnson
To: Emma Suzuki
Date: September 25
Subject: Sounds fun!

Hi Emma,
I'm doing great! Thanks for reminding me about the performance. Of course, I will go! I'm so excited! You practiced so much, so I am sure it will be very nice. What is the play about? Is it a comedy? I like comedy plays the best! My sister wants to come, too. Can we sit with your family? Also, when do we buy the tickets? Do we buy them in the theater on Friday, or before Friday? I want to buy some snacks, too, so my sister and I will arrive at 4:15 p.m. We will take the bus to the theater, and our mom will drive us home. When will the performance end?
Your friend,
Mia

大問3C 長文

本文を読み、次ページのQ26-Q30に答えなさい。

Table Tennis

Table tennis is a sport that started in England. In the 1880s, people in England played table tennis instead of tennis when the weather was bad because it was a fun way to stay active indoors. Many people enjoyed the game, and it became very popular. Soon, more people started playing table tennis in England, and then people from other countries started to play it as well.

In 1926, the first world championships for table tennis were held. Players from different countries, such as Hungary, Germany, and India, went to England and played in the table tennis championships. This tournament spread the sport around the world. From around 1950, countries in Asia started playing table tennis, too. It became popular there.

Table tennis became popular in many countries because it was easy to start playing. It did not cost a lot of money because it could be played with cheap items. The sport was fun for everyone, and people of all ages could play. There have been many professional table tennis players from Asia, and they have won many medals in the Olympics.

In 1971, an important moment in table tennis history happened. At one of the table tennis championships in Japan, an American athlete missed his bus and got on the Chinese team's bus instead. A Chinese athlete on the bus gave him a drawing of the mountains in his country. This was a special moment for the players from both countries. Table tennis helped people from many countries to become friends.
