Dear Yuko,
Thank you for your e-mail. I'm happy that you want to be a volunteer at the library. We need volunteers on Saturdays. Actually, another student from Greenbank Junior High School is a volunteer at the library on that day, too. Our volunteers talk to visitors, help people to find books, clean the library, and return books to the right place. They also read books to children. Please send me an essay about your experience by e-mail this week. Then, I'll ask you to come to the library for an interview. At the interview, I'll tell you more about the library, and you can ask me some questions.
Best wishes,
