(22) At the party on May 17, students can

- 1 buy new pants.
- 2 swim in the river.
- 3 look at pictures of the trip.
- 4 see bugs.

大問3B Melissa and Rick's Aquarium Emails

3通のメールを読み、後の設問に答えなさい。

From: Melissa Baker
To: Rick Thompson
Date: April 8
Subject: Class trip

Hi Rick,
I'm so excited about our class trip to the city aquarium next week. You said that you went to the aquarium last year. What's it like? Is it cold inside the aquarium? And what should I wear? Do I need to wear a jacket or a warm sweater? I'm interested in seeing the fish and other sea animals there. I'm really looking forward to seeing the penguins. I hear that people can take pictures with the penguins at the aquarium. Is that true?
Your friend,
Melissa

From: Rick Thompson
To: Melissa Baker
Date: April 8
Subject: The aquarium

Hello Melissa,
Our class trip to the aquarium is going to be so much fun! Yes, I went to the aquarium with my family last summer. My cousins visited us, and we all went together. I also went with my parents when I was only five years old. The aquarium has two parts. One part is inside, and the other is outside. It isn't very cold inside, but you'll need a jacket for the outside part. It's so cold this month! The penguins are in the outside part. Two years ago, people could take pictures with the penguins, but the aquarium changed its rule. People can't take pictures with them now.
Your friend,
Rick

大問3C 長文

本文を読み、次ページのQ26-Q30に答えなさい。

Ann Lowe

Ann Lowe was an African American fashion designer. She was born in Alabama in the United States around 1898. When she was a child, Lowe's mother and grandmother taught her how to make clothes. Both her mother and her grandmother had jobs. They made clothes for rich people in Alabama, and Lowe often helped them with their work.

Lowe's mother died in 1914. When she died, Lowe's mother was making some dresses in Alabama. The dresses weren't finished, so Lowe finished making them. In 1916, she met a rich woman from Florida in a department store. Lowe was wearing clothes that she made, and the woman really liked them. So, Lowe became a dressmaker for her in Florida. After that, Lowe went to live in New York in 1917.

In New York, Lowe went to the S.T. Taylor School of Design. Lowe was the only African American student at the school, and she couldn't join the class with the other students. She took classes in a room by herself. She finished studying at the design school in 1919, and she opened her own store in Florida.

After that, Lowe made dresses for many years. Her dresses were special because they had beautiful flower designs on them. She made dresses for some rich and famous people, but not many people knew about her work. Also, she sometimes didn't get much money for her dresses. Lowe became more famous after she died in 1981. Many people today know that she was a very good fashion designer and dressmaker.
