Hi Miranda,
It was nice to see you at the park yesterday. We're family, but we don't see each other often enough! I want to talk about planning the family reunion in July. Last year, we had it at Grandma's house. She moved in February, and her home is too small now. Could we meet at your house instead? I can help you to prepare. What do you think?
Your cousin,
Brian

From: Miranda Carter
To: Brian Carter
Date: March 2
Subject: Another place

Hi Brian,
Thank you for planning the reunion, and you're right. Grandma's new house is too small! I'd love to invite everyone to my house instead, but I can't. We're going to renovate our kitchen that month, so we can't use my house. How about going to Westside Park? It has picnic tables, and kids always enjoy playing there. Or how about the community center by the river? I don't know much about it, but I've been there before for other events.
Thanks,
Miranda
